From The Jersey City News (Dem.).

The New-York Tribune in its excellent New-Jersey page, the only New-Jersey page, by the way, in any New-York paper which is not contemptible—is clamoring for a short session of the Legislaurer. This is satisfactory.

The Tribune is fertile this morning in material for thought. It has a letter from Senator Foster M. Voorhees, of Union, in which that ambrostal curled young statesman sets forth his views as to what his party should and should not do during the coming session.

MANY VISITORS IN CANTON.

BAD WEATHER DOES NOT CHECK THE STREAM OF CALLERS ON THE PRESIDENT-ELECT.

Canton, Ohio, Nov. 21.-Dark skies and a drizzling rain were not potent enough to check the flow of visitors to the McKinley home to-day. General Nelson A. Miles started this morning for Akron, to have an interview with his pub-

Major McKinley has had a large number of callers to-day. Among those from a distance was John S. Wise, of New-York, who arrived from the East at 10.30 and started for New-York at 2 p. m. Mr. Wise came out to talk about the New-York situation, and he had an hour's private conversation with Major McKinley about matters of a more personal nature. is inferred that he would accept a certain Federal appointment.

Speaker Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, who passed through here on his way back from the Pacific Coast yesterday, did not stop.

MR. HANNA AND THE INAUGURATION. ASSUMES CHARGE OF THE CEREMONIES AT THE

Cleveland, Nov. 21.-Chairman Hanna said this morning: "My correspondence is almost as large as during the heat of the campaign. I was forced to call Major Dick here to take care of it."

"Have you not overstepped your prerogative as chairman of the National Committee in deciding to assume full charge of the inaugural ceremenies at Washington?

Mr. Hanna was told of the Washington dispatch stating that leading Republicans were ruffed because, as they said, Mr. Hanna had broken an established custom whereby the details of the cere-monies were left to the local committees. Mr. "This is the first I have heard of this. It was decided to make appointments as I see fit. to make the event a National affair, and, what is more, I will take a distinct pride in the chowing that will be made by Ohio. This is a matter of State pride, and I believe Ohio Republicans will back me up." A DENIAL FROM FERDINAND W. PECK Chicago, Nov. 21.-Ferdinand W. Peck, of Chicago, denies the interview with him in relation to a conference with Mr. Hanna at Cleveland yesterday. He says he has not spoken to any person regarding his talk with Mr. Hanna, which was purely of a private nature. M'KINLEY TO INDIANA REPUBLICANS.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 21.-A. M. Higgins, presiof the Indiana Republican League, has received the following letter from Major McKinley I know something of the uphill fight of the Republicans of Indiana. Therefore it is that I enter heartify in their fellettations over the victory—and for that victory the workers of the League are entitled to no small credit.

Indianapolis, Nov. 21.-Indiana's official vote President is finally all certified and received at the State House. The official figures give McKinley a plurelity of 18 424, in a total vote of 637,637. McKin-ley's majority is 10,600. The increase over the vote four years ago is $3.451. The gold Democrats cast 2.16 votes for Paimer. Four years ago the Populists cast 22.208 votes, but this year they all went for the Democratic ticket. Even with this, the Republicans show a gain of 68,213, and the Democrats a gain of only 42.667 since Cleveland's election. The Prohibition vote combined is 7.725 less than two years ago, when it stood at 13,050.

YONE NOGUCHUS MYSTIC VERSE LARGELY CRIBBED FROM POE.

isco, Nov. 21 (Special) .- "The Chr to-morrow will print an article which exposes bold plagiarism from Poe by Yone Noguchi, the young Japaness protegé of Jeaquin Miller, who has recently been exploited in certain publications. Yone prepared to enter the University he decided to live Oakland, and cultivate poetry on oatment and scenery. He soon became the idol of the literary coteries of the Athens of the Pacific, and was hailed Yone appeared regularly at these meetings and read meeting held in the home of Miss Inc. D. Cool-brith, a postest, in Oakland, One of the party was the Rev. W. J. Hudsen, of Oakland, who was so much impressed with the resemblance of certain lines to Poe's "Eulalie" that he asked Miss Coolbrith to get the manuscript of the poem from Yone. The gratified author assented, and when Hudson returned home he compared the two poems and found the whole conception alike and a dozen similar phrases. So he wrote to "The Chronicle," indicating the following deadly parallel. NOGUCHI performances at the Metropolitan Opera House was given last evening. The opera was one of those that are reserved exclusively for these occathose that are reserved exclusively for these occa-sions, "La Favorita," and it is, therefore, pre-sumably one that the management considers to appeal especially to the "popular" taste. But though the piece was in excellent hands and a performance was given that did it no injustice in any important particular, the popular taste refused to find much potency of attraction in Donizetti's conventional and faded measures, and the audience was but a scattered handful. Signor Cremonial appeared for the first time this season, taking the hero's part. His voice seemed in the first act rounder, funer and of richer color than when it was last heard here; but as the opera went on it relapsed into the "white" quality that never seemed relapsed into the "white quality that hever seemed to leave it last year. Mme. Mantelli was the Lenora, and M. Plançon and Bignor Ancona, the Baldassare and Alfonso respectively. There was enthusiasm for the best of their singing, and several numbers were repeated.

The first of the series of popular Saturday night

CASTELLANO MAKES DENIAL.

THE SPANISH MINISTER OF THE COLONIES SAYS THERE IS NO PROBABILITY OF A RIS-ING IN PORTO RICO.

Madrid, Nov. 21.-Senor Castellano, Minister of the Colonies, denies the truth of the story telegraphed yesterday of the probability of a rising in Perto Rico, despite the fact that the story was based upon official advices from that island, but the "Dia" affirms the accuracy of the story, and declares that the Government has received advices showing the existence of a conspiracy to accomplish an insurrection.

The "Correo" gives expression to the general feeling of dissatisfaction with General Weyler, and asks when General Azcarraga, Minister of going to take the command of things into his own hands.

Advices from Havana announce the arrival there of General Munoz from Pinar del Rio.
The report that General Weyler is to be superseded by General Pando as Captain-General of Cuba is pronounced upon semi-official authority to be without foundation.

IS SHE TO BE A CUBAN FILIBUSTER? Chicago, Nov. 21.—The little steamer Elsa started for New Orleans on Thursday by way of the Illinois and Michigan Canal, and the Mississippi River. The Elsa is said to be intended for a trading vessel, to ply south of Jamaica, but it is rumored that this is only a blind for the real errand, that of a Cuban only a blind for the real errand, that of a Cuban fillbustering expedition. The Elsa was bought in Sandusky recently, and she is capable of making fourteen miles an hour, which is better speed than that of any of the beats the Cubans have been able to get hold of. The Elsa is 75 feet long, 18 feet beam, and draws 7 feet.
